meeting of the workingmen to-morrow night at McGinley's Hall, I add my mite to its success. This is indeed a proper step for our workingmen to take, and I trust it will meet with perfect success; it is an old adage that "God belps those who help themselves." This applies equally to the workingmen as to others. If we do not succeed we have no right to succeed. There are 150,000 Chinese now scattered over this coast engaged in our various industrial pursuits. We will say these 150,000 cided that there is such a thing as Chinamen represent 100,000 white men that would be employed to day if this Celestial curse was not fastened upon the body politic. They displace our laborers and farm hands ill feeling exists between the Irish Societies of San Francisco and Kear-chanies, our cooks and waiters, our chanies, our cooks and waiters, our chambermaids and housekeepers, our porters and boot blacks -- in a word this cheap labor is the workingmen's starvation. Were this Chineso element driven from our midst there would te-day be plenty of work at f ir wages, for every workingman, women and child on the coast, and yet we hear men say the labor movement must fail, everybody will employ the cheapest labor they can get. First, I take issue upon this point to this extent, that the movement must succeed if the workingmen are true to themselves. Organize promptly in every ward, in every city, town, and hamlet: let the watchword be "death to masters," and let them recoive, if not physical death, a just and sure punishment for their apostacy. Being properly organized the Chinese emigration must cease, and their exodus must commence, and ere two years has been made in the cycle do its share toward retarding the of time Chinese competition with white labor will have passed away forever, and the works of the workingmen will stand as a bright and shining monument of his justice and discretion in this the great emergency of the age-the life or death of the workingmen of America. Then stand in workingmen of Washoe county; put your brawny shoulders to the wheel and with a will send along the cause to certain success, and on to-morrow night give to C. E. Apponyi such a greeting as will warm the heart of him, the workingman's
